Hong Kong Arts Centre's Annual Collectors' Contemporary Collaboration (CCC) was initiated in 2013 to examine the role and contributions of private collectors to the development of Asian art scenes. Celebrating its 4th edition in 2016, HKAC has invited Fumio Nanjo and Roger McDonald as the guest curators and turn our eyes on Japanese collectors, a group whose interest in art is not only with diversity, but also in depth and focus. With this exhibition, CCC will present the diverse collections of Keita Arisawa, Daisuke Miyatsu, Yoshiko Mori, Takeo Obayashi, Atom Suematsu, Ryutaro Takahashi, Seichi Yoshino, share the insight of Japanese contemporary collections as well as how these collectors have contributed to the development of art and artists in the 21st century.
