As part of Magnum's 70th anniversary, Magnum Photos Hong Kong presents a panel discussion about the future of the photography market, featuring Magnum nominee Matt Stuart. In this conversation Matt Stuart will give his perspective on the business of photography, and other panelists will discuss changes in the market of photography, reflecting on the role of these changes in the development of the medium.

Speakers are: Mark Pearson, who established Hong Kong's Photobook Fair; Connie Lam, Director of the Hong Kong Arts Centre, gallerist Sarah Greene, and art consultant Alexandre Errera. The talk is moderated by art consultant Laure Raibaut.

Presented and organized by Magnum Photos, Hong Kong Arts Centre, Boogie Woogie Photography, Fine Art Asia, with the support of Jet Airways.
