

Art Guides

From Bruegel in Vienna to Basquiat in Paris, Here Are 38 Must-See Museum Shows Worth Traveling for This Fall

Globetrotting art lovers have a lot to look forward to in the coming season.

Sarah Cascone, October 16, 2018

20. “Wan Chai Grammatica: Past, Present, Future Tense” at the Hong Kong Arts Centre September 30–November 4, 2018

Luis Chan, Untitled (Fantasy Landscape with Undersea Mountains), 1977. Courtesy of Hanart TZ Gallery.

The Hong Kong Arts Centre celebrates its 40th birthday with a group show showcasing the role that the Wan Chai neighborhood, which it calls home, has played in shaping the city’s cultural and artistic identity, as well as Hong Kong’s increasing prominence on the international art scene. To tell this story, curator Valerie C. Doran has selected 19 artists who hail from Hong Kong or have strong ties to the city.

The Hong Kong Arts Centre, Pao Galleries, 4-5/F, 2 Harbour Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong. Admission is free.