

ART BASEL MAY BE THE MAIN EVENT BUT THERE'S PLENTY MORE FOR ART DEVOTEES TO SEE AND DO IN HONG KONG THIS MONTH

The Show Goes On

NOGUCHI FOR DANH VO: COUNTERPOINT M+ PAVILION, WEST KOWLOON CULTURAL DISTRICT

Until April 22

The eighth exhibition at Hong Kong's museum for 20th- and 21st-century visual culture presents a unique dialogue between noted Japanese-American artist Isamu Noguchi and Vietnamese-Danish artist Danh Vo. It features a wide range of drawings, objects and sculptures by Noguchi as well as selected pieces produced by Vo in the past eight years. mplus.org.hk/counterpoint

UNFOLDING: FABRIC OF OUR LIFE CENTRE FOR HERITAGE, ARTS & TEXTILE

March 17-June 30

The inaugural exhibition at the Centre for Heritage, Arts & Textile (CHAT) at The Mills in Tsuen Wan, which celebrates its grand opening on March 16, showcases works and performances by 17 contemporary artists and collectives from Asia. In keeping with the centre's mission and home at former cotton mills, textiles are woven throughout the works to signify the experiences of textile labourers in the era of globalisation. mill6chat.org

THIS PAGE
AN INSTALLATION VIEW OF EAU DE COLOGNE, BERLIN, 2015

OPPOSITE PAGE, FROM LEFT
CEDAR BY ASIA CONTEMPORARY ART SHOW FEATURED ARTIST WU QIONG; PALIMPSEST, 2016, BY ART CENTRAL FEATURED ARTIST HOON KWAK

HKWALLS WAN CHAI

March 23-31

Hong Kong's annual street-art festival welcomes local and international artists to realise their visions on exterior walls just a stone's throw from Art Basel in the vibrant district of Wan Chai. Besides a front-row seat to live painting, visitors can enjoy pop-up exhibitions, workshops and special events throughout the week. hkwalls.org

EAU DE COLOGNE HART HALL, H QUEEN'S

March 27-April 12

The groundbreaking contemporary-art series - known for establishing a powerful discourse around art, feminism and power - makes its Asia debut, featuring Cindy Sherman, Jenny Holzer and three more of the seven seminal female artists who participated in the original project in 1983. Also featured are Astrid Klein and Kara Walker, presenting compelling messages about today's social, political and cultural environments. spruethmagers.com

ART CENTRAL CENTRAL HARBOURFRONT

March 27-31

The fifth staging of the second major fair of Hong Kong's so-called Art Week welcomes 32 first-time exhibitors to its ranks of 107 international galleries. With 75 percent hailing from Asia-Pacific, expect a range of high-quality contemporary art from established and emerging artists in the region. Check the website for the full programme of talks, performances, partnerships and curatorial projects. artcentralhongkong.com

SOUTH ISLAND ART DAY WONG CHUK HANG AND TIN WAN DISTRICTS

March 29

The South Island Cultural District welcomes art lovers to its growing gallery hub, with 16 local art spaces throwing open their doors for a variety of special events and exhibitions. Another 10 local and international artists have also contributed outdoor installations, while prestigious speakers will discuss art-related topics during the Art World Forum.

sacd.com.hk

ASIA CONTEMPORARY ART SHOW CONRAD HONG KONG

March 29-April 1

Now in its 14th year, the longest-running hotel art fair in Asia returns to the Conrad Hong Kong with a wide-ranging array of art and art-related programmes. Highlights include a series of Artist Dialogues that enable artists and art enthusiasts to connect with one another as well as more than 2,000 works by artists from Hong Kong, Taiwan, China, Malaysia, South Korea, the UK and more.

asiacontemporaryart.com

5TH COLLECTORS' CONTEMPORARY COLLABORATION

PAO GALLERIES,
HONG KONG ARTS CENTRE

March 27-April 22

In an effort to understand the phenomenon of contemporary art in mainland China, the Hong Kong Arts Centre and curator Ling Min of the Shanghai Academy of Fine Arts explore the habits and interests of two distinct groups of Chinese collectors: those who are artists themselves and those with their own art spaces or museums. Featured collectors include Guan Yi and Zheng Hao.

hkac.org.hk

ASIA ARTS GAME CHANGER
AWARDS HONG KONG
FOUR SEASONS HOTEL HONG KONG

March 29

Honouring artists and art professionals making significant contributions to the contemporary arts in Asia, this gala celebration hosted by the Asia Society is also a chance for major artists, gallerists and collectors from around the world to reunite and reconnect. Past honorees include Zeng Fanzhi, Takashi Murakami and Park Seo-Bo.

asiasociety.org/hong-kong