hkhub 📍 Must-See Art Exhibitions & Fairs In Hong Kong Art Lovers Don't Want To Miss 🖌️

◆ Zheng Mahler: What Is It Like To Be A Virtual Bat? (@phdgroup.art)

This first solo exhibition by artist duo Zheng Mahler is inspired by philosopher Thomas Nagel's 1974 essay What is it like to be a bat?, and showcases new works and video installations.

◆ Desire to Fly (@airsidehk)

The exhibition features more than 200 exhibits and 21 art pieces from local artists, and comprises three chapters — all illustrating a flying journey for the pursuit of dreams, and a glimpse of the changing times through objects and images from the past.

◆ The Collectible Art Fair (@hongkongartscentre)

This is the city's first collectible art fair focusing on local artists and features more than 300 artworks by over 200 Hong Kong Art School alumni and artists.
